Community Support

2007 Celebration – Promotes the 400 year celebration of Jamestown.

Governor’s School – Each locality participating in the Governor’s School supports the facility based on the number of students attending from the respective locality. These funds represent Hanover’s share.

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College – Hanover pays approximately 14% of the College’s operating and capital costs. Other contributors are the Counties of Goochland, Henrico, Louisa, Powhatan, and the City of Richmond.

Richmond Convention and Visitors Bureau - The Bureau is designed to promote the metropolitan Richmond area (including Hanover) as an attractive vacation spot, convention place, and motion picture filming location. Specifically for Hanover, this includes promotional inducement with Kings Dominion, familiarization tours of horse racing farms, Scotchtown, battlefields, shuttle service from County hotels to Richmond conventions, radio station advertising highlighting Hanover attractions, and coordinating all feature films, commercial production, and television shooting in Hanover.

Greater Richmond Convention Center Authority – The Authority is funded through the lodging tax generated in each participating locality. The amount appropriated totals 100% of this tax in Hanover County.

Richmond Regional Planning District Commission – Represents the Counties of Hanover, Charles City, Chesterfield, Goochland, Henrico, New Kent, Powhatan, the Town of Ashland, and the City of Richmond. Funding is based on $.60 per capita.

Senior Connections - A planning and coordination agency for people age sixty and older living in Planning District 15 (includes Hanover) under the jurisdiction of the Older Americans Act of 1965. The agency serves 150 people in the County. The contribution is based upon $1.05 for every person sixty years of age or older. There are currently 14,759 such residents in Hanover.

American Red Cross – Provides transportation to approximately 300 individuals in Hanover to medical appointments.

Arts and Cultural Funding Consortium – Consolidates and provides funding for the arts and cultural organizations in the Richmond metropolitan area. Many of the arts organizations work in Hanover schools and Hanover citizens constitute over 10% of the Consortium’s member organization’s free and paid performances and programs.

Boys and Girls Club – Serves over 200 Hanover County youth at Liberty Middle School.

Capital Area Training Consortium – Provides job training and employment assistance services to laid-off workers, as well as economically disadvantaged persons.

Central Virginia Health Planning Agency – Plans for medical services and facilities, collects and disseminates health care data, and provides health care education.

Council on Aging – Provides services for the senior population including a health fair, health screenings, and health counseling.

Domestic Violence Task Force – Provides financial counseling and legal services for victims, training programs, prevention programs, and batterers counseling groups.

Friends of Rail – Nonprofit organization established to bring high speed rail access to Virginia.

Hanover Adult Center – Provides care for adults of all ages with special needs.

Community Support

Hanover County Historical Society – Produce a living history presentation of Patrick Henry’s famous case known as “The Parsons’ Cause”.

Hanover Habitat for Humanity – Building and selling affordable homes in Hanover County.

Hanover Historic Preservation Fund – These funds are provided on a matching basis to preserve the historic sites in the County. The FY06 appropriation is part of a $200,000 pledge to the Hanover Tavern. The final installment of that pledge is anticipated for FY07.

Hanover Tavern Foundation – The Foundation is renovating the tavern for public use, including daytime use as a learning and teaching center for area children.

Historic Polegreen Church Foundation – Provides educational programs based on the theme of the Polegreen Church site and the struggle for religious freedom.

Homeward – Regional homeless services coordinating organization for Hanover, Richmond, Henrico, and Chesterfield.

Irvin Gammon Craig Health Center - Located at St. Joseph’s Villa, the Center provides healthcare to low income and underserved individuals regardless of their ability to pay.

Jamestown 4 H Center – The Center provides camping, environmental education, and leadership training to youth and adult volunteers.

Maymont Foundation – Hanover funds the Foundation along with the Counties of Chesterfield and Henrico, and the City of Richmond. These funds allow Maymont to maintain the present service levels, expand upon the educational programs, and upgrade the park’s maintenance. The Nature Center at Maymont is a state of the art educational center where the ecology of Richmond and the surrounding areas can be understood through innovative programming and teaching techniques.

Meals on Wheels – Provides hot meals to homebound residents.

Montpelier Center for Arts & Education – The Center, located in Western Hanover County, is committed to providing educational opportunities and encouraging participation in the arts and creative expression for all ages.

Read Center – The Center will work with 25 County residents to improve their literacy skills.

Regional Taxicab Program – Implements programs and improves services received by taxicab customers.

Richmond Sportsbackers – Promotes sporting events in the Richmond area.

Ride Finders – Serves Hanover as the region’s ridesharing agency.

Science Museum of Virginia – The museum focuses on providing educational exhibits focusing on the sciences.

Scotchtown – The birthplace of Patrick Henry provides tours and special events for the public.

St. Joseph’s Villa – The Villa provides temporary housing and support to families who have lost their homes.

VCU Children’s Medical Center – Funds to support the pediatric oncology program at VCU Children’s Medical Center.

Western Hanover Committee for the Aging – Provides nourishing meals, programs, and companionship for senior citizens in Western Hanover County.
