HANOVER COUNTY LIFTS BAN ON OPEN BURNING DUE TO RECENT RAINS

Effective 12:01 a.m. on Saturday, August 21, Hanover County has lifted the ban on open burning that was declared because of the drought. Recent rainfall has eased what had been a hazardous situation for potential fires.

However, Hanover County continues to enforce its normal restrictions against burning within Hanover's Overlay Urban Development District or within a district zoned Residential. Residents within those areas are not allowed to open-burn at any time during the year without a permit from the Fire Marshal's Office (except for campfires or other fires solely for recreational uses, which are allowed.)

If you have any questions or need more information about burn laws in Hanover County, call the Fire Marshal's Office at 365-6195 or e-mail mjflournoy@co.hanover.va.us
