On Saturday, May 29, 2005, a male entered the Doswell Market, located at 15145 North Washington Highway, and approached the clerk aggressively with a knife, while demanding money.

The 42-year-old male clerk struggled with the suspect and ultimately disarmed him. In the struggle the clerk received a laceration to his right hand. After being disarmed the suspect left the store.

The suspect is described as a male with dark complexion, thin build, and approximately 6'0" tall. At the time of the incident he was wearing a dark colored hooded sweatshirt and a white facemask.

Shortly after the robbery a witness in the area observed the suspect without his mask. A composite was developed based on the witness description.

Any information on this composite would be appreciated. The clerk was very fortunate not to have sustained serious injury in this attack. Any information on the identity of the suspect can be reported to the Hanover County Sheriff's Office at 804-365-6140 or to Crime Stoppers at 780-1000.
