Arrest Made in Robbery of Union First Market Bank

The Hanover County Sheriff's Office identified the person responsible for the May 4 robbery of the Union First Market Bank. Preston Robert Walcker, 44 years of age, of the 4100 block of Indian River Road in Virginia Beach has been charged with robbery. He is currently incarcerated in the Virginia Beach Correctional Center with no bond.

Sheriff's Office Investigators developed information that Walcker was responsible for the robbery in Hanover and possibly other crimes in Virginia Beach and Chesapeake. On May 13 Investigators from Hanover worked with authorities in Virginia Beach and Chesapeake to take Walcker into custody.

In addition to our robbery, Walcker was also charged with bank robberies in Virginia Beach on April 12 and May 6 and with another bank robbery in Chesapeake on May 12.
