

NEWS RELEASE

Date: April 14, 2010

Contact: Captain Michael J. Trice (804) 365-6292 (w)
(804) 389-4501 (c)

The Hanover County Sheriff's Office Foundation Achieves 501 (c) (3) Status

The Foundation recently acquired the status of not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) with the generous donation of services by Attorney Anne D. McDougall of Freed & Shepherd, P.C.; and CPAs Jennifer F. Flinchum of Keiter Stephens, and Scott Huzek of Battlefield Commons, for the accounting services needed for this organization.

The services of Anne McDougall were acquired pro bono through the Greater Richmond Bar Foundation. The Bar Foundation serves the public and legal profession by supporting, facilitating, and promoting the delivery of pro bono legal services for non-profit organizations through the Pro Bono Clearinghouse. They provide financial support to others in greater Richmond who provides pro bono legal services. By involvement in and sponsorship of law-related educational and service projects, they encourage public understanding of, participation in, and access to our justice system. To learn more about the Bar Foundation please go to their website, www.grbf.org.

From left to right: W. Scott Huzek, Colonel V. Stuart Cook, Anne D. McDougall, and Lt. Colonel David R. Hines

The Hanover County Sheriff's Office Foundation, formed in 2008, provides an independent resource where donations, goods, or services can be received and disbursed for the benefit of the Office without the appearance of impropriety, while furthering the goal of providing for the safety and well-being of all the citizens of Hanover County.

"The Hanover County Sheriff's Office Foundation has provided an avenue for business and community leaders to support the members of the Sheriff's Office and their families, and an opportunity to express our appreciation for the dedicated service they provide to the safety and well-being of the citizens of Hanover County," John Cox, President of the Hanover County Sheriff's Office Foundation and Delegate for the 55th District.

The Foundation will be hosting its second charity golf tournament on April 29, 2010, at the Hunting Hawk Golf Course. If you would like more information on how you can participate or for sponsorship information, please contact Lt. Kerri Freis at 356-6312.

###