

Hanover County Sheriff's Office
Colonel V. Stuart Cook, Sheriff

News Release

Contact Sgt. Terry Sullivan (804)-365-6819

04/28/2005

Several convenience stores in the western Hanover area have been burglarized recently, the latest being April 21st, 2005.

Unknown suspects have stolen money or merchandise from Verbeeks Convenience Store in Bumpass (Formerly Ed's Convenience Store), Goodway in Montpelier, the Quikstop in Beaverdam, Elk Creek in Louisa, the "Barn" in Spotsylvania and the Caroline Market (Moore's Grocery) over the last two months.

General Items stolen are cigarettes and easily accessible monies such as coins and bills from the register.

The Hanover Sheriff's Office is asking for assistance in solving these cases. We are requesting should you have any information regarding these incidents to please call the Hanover Sheriff's Office at 804-730-6110 or call Crime Stoppers at 804-780-1000. Remember with Crime Stoppers the format is, no names, no testifying in court and your information, if of value to police, could be worth up to a $1,000 cash reward.

In addition, business owners have gotten together and are offering an additional award in conjunction with the possible rewards received when reporting information to the Crime Stoppers Program.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. Please feel free to contact Sgt. Terry Sullivan at 804-365-6819 should you have any questions.

Colonel V. Stuart Cook
Sheriff