

The Hanover County Sheriff's Office is seeking the community's assistance in identifying a suspect(s) involved in two similar larcenies of U.S. currency from convenience stores in Mechanicsville.

On July 23, 2007, at approximately 9:00 p.m., an unknown black male entered the Dash Food Mart convenience store located at 7119 Mechanicsville Turnpike and stole an undisclosed amount of U.S. currency from the store office. Once confronted by a store employee, the suspect left the store on foot. The suspect was seen here earlier in the day at approximately 7:30 p.m. wearing similar clothing, likely in an attempt to case the establishment. No one was injured in this incident.

The suspect in this incident is described as a black male in his twenties, average height and weight, wearing a black baseball hat, a white T-shirt, dark colored pants, and dark colored shoes with yellow shoelaces.

In a similar incident, which occurred between July 22-23, 2007, an unknown suspect(s) entered the Sandy Lane Shell convenience store located at 7274 Mechanicsville Turnpike and stole an undisclosed amount of U.S. currency from the store office. There was no suspect description provided in this incident. However, a white car driven by a black female is thought to be involved. Again, no one was injured in this incident.

Anyone with information on this incident can contact Crime Stoppers at 780-1000 or the Hanover Sheriff's Office at 365-6140.
