

Investigators make arrest in Montpelier Pharmacy robbery

The Hanover County Sheriff's Office has identified and arrested Jamerson Early Seay, a 20 year old, of the 16000 block of Hennessy Way in Montpelier, for the robbery of the Montpelier Pharmacy.

Seay was identified as a possible suspect soon after the robbery due to strong citizen support and initiative of the responding officers. He was arrested late February 13th and subsequently charged with Robbery and Possession of Controlled Substance. Seay is currently incarcerated with no bond at Pamunkey Regional Jail. His next court appearance is scheduled for March 27, 2009.

This computerized composite was prepared based on witness accounts.

Seay, Jamerson Early