Thanksgiving dinner comes one day early for some seniors in Hanover County!

With a generous contribution by the Mechanicsville Rotary Club, the Hanover County Sheriff's Office will be delivering Ukrop's Thanksgiving meals to 19 senior citizens who have been "adopted" by patrol deputies.

Those who are apart of our "Adopt-a-Senior" program are seniors that don't have family close by, and are in need of a little "extra attention." Deputies who "adopt" a senior check on their senior several times during their work week to ensure their welfare.

The dinners will be picked up between 9:30am and 10:00am at the Ukrops location on Bell Creek Road in Mechanicsville. Deputies, armed with their meals, will then travel across the county to deliver their package and share some fellowship with their senior.

The media is invited to attend this event and is encouraged to join deputies as they make their Thanksgiving dinner deliveries. If you are interested in attending, please call Deputy Jim McLaughlin at 396-0540 or try his pager at 215-4837.

Any other questions can be directed at Lt. Doug Goodman at 365-6312.
